

BANK EMAIL

An email with your bank's logo warns of suspicious overseas logins and urges you to click a secure-looking link to reset your password.

- A: Click after checking the link looks safe.
- B: Reply and ask what this is about.
- C: Call your bank using its app.
- D: Delete the email and report it.

SAFE ACTION(S): C OR D

(Scoring: A: 0, B: 0, C: 4, D: 4)

WHY:

If a message feels strange, don't click the link; just delete it or call a number you already trust to check if it is real.

Konfydence TM – Outsmart Scams, Together!

THE PACKAGE TRACKING LINK

A DHL text says your package is on hold. Click link to verify address. You aren't expecting a delivery.

- A: Ask for the tracking details.
- B: Click the link to see what happened.
- C: Call the courier's official support.
- D: Block the sender.

SAFE ACTION(S): C OR D

(Scoring: A: 0, B: 0, C: 4, D: 4)

WHY:

Strange links for tracking packages are often traps, so it is best to delete them or check on the official website.

THE CHARITY EMAIL AFTER A DISASTER

A charity you recognize asks for donations after a natural disaster. The link looks real, but the email is in your spam folder.

- A: Send it to a friend you trust first.
- B: Donate through the email link.
- C: Donate directly on the charity's website.
- D: Delete the email.

SAFE ACTION(S): C OR D

(Scoring: A: 0, B: 0, C: 4, D: 3)

WHY:

To keep your money safe, only give to charity on their official website and never click links in an email.

THE AGENT JOB

The Job: You will receive large sum of money in your account. Then transfer to another agent. Your pay: 5% commission.

- A: Open a new account for the payments.
- B: Ask for a contract before agreeing.
- C: Accept the job offer.
- D: Report it to your bank or police.

SAFE ACTION(S): D

(Scoring: A: 1, B: 2, C: 0, D: 4)

WHY:

Moving or sharing money from a crime is a serious crime called money laundering.

Konfydence ^(TM) – Outsmart Scams, Together!

YOU WON THE LOTTERY

A message says you won lottery and your bank details are required to collect the prize.
You never played in a lottery.

- A: Ask how you supposedly won.
- B: Call to get more details.
- C: Send your bank information.
- D: Block the sender and delete it.

SAFE ACTION(S): D

(Scoring: A: 2, B: 0, C: 0, D: 4)

WHY:

You can't win a lottery unless you actually bought a ticket first.

PRO TIP:

Never pay or share data to claim a prize you didn't enter to win.

THE OFFICIAL VERIFICATION EMAIL

You receive an urgent email claiming to be from a government office asking you to verify personal information before a deadline.

- A: Forward it to a friend for advice.
- B: Click the link and fill in details.
- C: Go to the official website yourself.
- D: Delete the email.

SAFE ACTION(S): C OR D

(Scoring: A: 1, B: 0, C: 4, D: 4)

WHY:

Be cautious — always verify via official channels.

Konfydence ^(TM) – Outsmart Scams, Together!

THE FRIEND IN NEED ON SOCIAL MEDIA

A friend's Facebook message says they're in trouble and need urgent money. The tone/grammar are different.

- A: Ignore the message for now.
- B: Ask questions in the chat.
- C: Send money to help immediately.
- D: Call your friend to check it's real.

SAFE ACTION(S): D

(Scoring: A: 2, B: 1, C: 0, D: 4)

WHY:

People can lose control of their social media to hackers, so always call your friend on the phone.

Konfydence ^(TM) – Outsmart Scams, Together!

THE REQUEST TO DISABLE AD-BLOCKER

A website asks you to disable your ad-blocker to continue viewing the content.

- A: Keep browsing without disabling anything.
- B: Turn it off just for this site.
- C: Report the request to your ad-blocker.
- D: Leave the website.

SAFE ACTION(S): C OR D

(Scoring: A: 2, B: 0, C: 4, D: 4)

WHY:

This is a trick to show you dangerous or annoying ads, so it is safer to just leave the page or report it.

Konfydence ^(TM) – Outsmart Scams, Together!

THE POLICE IDENTITY CALL

A caller says he is from the “FBI/ Police.” He asks your Social Security or Tax number for verification regarding a criminal investigation.

- A: Give the information they asked for.
- B: Refuse to share personal details.
- C: Ask for their badge number.
- D: Hang up and call local police yourself.

SAFE ACTION(S): B OR D

(Scoring: A: 0, B: 4, C: 3, D: 4)

WHY:

The police will never call you to threaten you or demand that you give them money or personal information over the phone.

PRO TIP:

Official government agencies do not demand personal data or immediate payment.

THE JOB WITH AN AD FEE

A job post requires a non-refundable $30 application fee to be considered for the role.

- A: Email them and ask more questions.
- B: Pay the fee to apply.
- C: Research the company online first.
- D: Look for jobs that don't charge fees.

SAFE ACTION(S): C OR D

(Scoring: A: 1, B: 0, C: 4, D: 4)

WHY:

Real employers will never charge you a fee to apply for a job. Any request for money is a scam.

Konfydence TM – Outsmart Scams, Together!

GRANDCHILD IN JAIL

Call from your “grandchild” needing urgent bail money. Voice different and begs you not to tell the parents.

- A: Send money right away.
- B: Ask a personal question to check.
- C: Call the parents to confirm first.
- D: Refuse to pay until you have verification.

SAFE ACTION(S): B, C OR D

(Scoring: A: 0, B: 4, C: 4, D: 4)

WHY:

Scammers use fake family emergencies to scare you into sending money before you have time to think.

PRO TIP:

Always verify with another trusted family member or by asking a personal question first.

CRYPTO EMAIL ON INSTAGRAM

A glamorous account offers an exclusive crypto deal with 300% guaranteed returns

- A: Block or report the account.
- B: Ask them to prove it's real.
- C: Research the cryptocurrency yourself.
- D: Invest immediately.

SAFE ACTION(S): A OR C

(Scoring: A: 4, B: 2, C: 4, D: 0)

WHY:

Promises of guaranteed profits are signs of a scam, especially when the advice comes from someone on social media.

Konfydence ^(TM) – Outsmart Scams, Together!

PASSWORD REQUEST VIA TEXT

A colleague you barely know texts you, asking for your password to access a document they urgently need to review.

- A: Ignore the message.
- B: Send your password to help them.
- C: Report it to IT security.
- D: Call their official number.

SAFE ACTION(S): C OR D

(Scoring: A: 3, B: 0, C: 4, D: 4)

WHY:

You should never send your passwords through text messages because they are not secure and can be easily stolen.

Konfydence™ – Outsmart Scams, Together!

THE EMPLOYEE GIFT CARD REQUEST

A new team member emails saying their credit card is locked and asks you to buy a gift card, promising to pay you back.

- A: Ask a coworker what they think.
- B: Forward it to HR.
- C: Buy the gift card.
- D: Call the employee directly.

SAFE ACTION(S): D

(Scoring: A: -1, B: 1, C: -2, D: 4)

WHY:

Requests for payment via gift cards are a sure sign of a scam. Always double-check any strange request by contacting the person directly through a different, trusted method.

THE LINKEDIN RECRUITER LINK

A recruiter messages you link to a “new job portal” requiring your login details for access.

- A: Click the link and log in.
- B: Go to LinkedIn directly yourself.
- C: Report or block the recruiter.
- D: Ask for the company website first.

SAFE ACTION(S): B OR C

(Scoring: A: 0, B: 4, C: 4, D: 3)

WHY:

A real recruiter will never ask for your login details, so always use official websites to sign in.

Konfydence ^(TM) – Outsmart Scams, Together!

THE FREE CONCERT QR CODE

A flyer for a free concert includes a QR code asking for credit card details to confirm entry.

- A: Scan it after a quick look.
- B: Share it with a friend.
- C: Go to the official event website.
- D: Remove or ignore the sticker.

SAFE ACTION(S): C

(Scoring: A: 1, B: 0, C: 4, D: 1)

WHY:

Harmful QR codes are a new way to steal your data, so never provide payment info for a "free" service.

Konfydence TM – Outsmart Scams, Together!

THE URGENT FLIGHT REQUEST

Your online dating partner, who claims to live overseas, suddenly needs $3,000 wired immediately for a last-minute flight to finally meet you, promising to pay you back.

- A: Wire the money immediately.
- B: Offer to pay another way instead.
- C: Ask for a video call first.
- D: Block them — it's a scam.

SAFE ACTION(S): D

(Scoring: A: 1, B: 2, C: 3, D: 4)

WHY:

A classic romance scam. This is where scammers fake an emergency to get you to send money using methods that can't be tracked.

Konfydence™ – Outsmart Scams, Together!

THE MILITARY DOCTOR EMERGENCY

Your online dating partner, claiming to be a military doctor overseas, asks you to wire money to a shipping agent.

- A: Send the money to the agent.
- B: Ask for more details.
- C: Research military romance scams.
- D: End the chat and report them.

SAFE ACTION(S): D

(Scoring: A: 2, B: 0, C: 3, D: 4)

WHY:

Scammers pretend to be doctors or soldiers to build trust and give a believable reason why they can't meet you in person.

Konfydence™ – Outsmart Scams, Together!

THE PUBLIC PAYMENT CODE

At a parking meter you notice a suspicious QR code sticker placed over the official payment screen: “Meter broken. Scan here to pay.”

- A: Scan it but cancel if it looks suspicious.
- B: Scan and pay through the code.
- C: Use another parking meter.
- D: Report it to the city.

SAFE ACTION(S): C

(Scoring: A: 0, B: 0, C: 4, D: 2)

WHY:

Fake QR codes can lead you to harmful websites that steal your bank details or credit card info.

PRO TIP:

Avoid public QR codes placed over payment mechanisms.

THE POP-UP ALARM

Loud pop-up claims a Trojan is deleting files, showing a number: “call immediately for certified tech support.”

- A: Call the support number shown.
- B: Ask a tech-savvy friend first.
- C: Shut down and run an antivirus scan.
- D: Call but avoid giving access or payment.

SAFE ACTION(S): C

(Scoring: A: 0, B: 3, C: 4, D: 0)

WHY:

These pop-ups are fake warnings meant to scare you into thinking something is wrong so you'll click on them or call a fake help number.

Konfydence™ – Outsmart Scams, Together!

THE UNEXPECTED UTILITY CHECK

A man in generic uniform claims there is a gas leak. He asks to check basement while you monitor a gauge upstairs.

- A: Let him in after a quick ID check.
- B: Let him in & keep watching him.
- C: Call the utility company to verify.
- D: Do what he asks.

SAFE ACTION(S): C

(Scoring: A: 2, B: 0, C: 4, D: 0)

WHY:

This is a trick to get your attention away from what they are really doing; real utility workers will almost always have an appointment scheduled with you in advance.

THE HIGH YIELD INVESTMENT PLATFORM

You see a social media ad promising guaranteed 1% returns per day on a professional looking crypto platform, requiring an initial deposit of $500.

- A: Look up reviews and scam warnings of the company.
- B: Invest a small amount to test it.
- C: Invest the full amount.
- D: Ask a trusted financial advisor.

SAFE ACTION(S): A OR D

(Scoring: A: 4, B: 0, C: 0, D: 4)

WHY:

Guaranteed high returns (especially ~365% annually) functions only in a Ponzi scheme. New “investors” money is used to pay off older ones until it eventually collapses.

PRO TIP:

Legitimate investments do not guarantee returns.

THE ELECTRICITY OUTRAGE

A caller claims to be from your power company and threatens to cut off power in 30 minutes unless you pay dued bills immediately with a prepaid debit card.

- A: Say you'll pay through your normal portal.
- B: Buy a prepaid card to pay them.
- C: Argue about the bill.
- D: Hang up, call the utility company.

SAFE ACTION(S): D

(Scoring: A: 2, B: 0, C: 0, D: 4)

WHY:

Utility companies always notify you in advance and never demand instant payment via gift cards or prepaid cards.

Konfydence™ – Outsmart Scams, Together!

IT PASSWORD RESET

An email from “IT” requests you reset your corporate password via a link. Your company IT department goes by the name Corporate IT.

- A: Click the link and reset your password.
- B: Ignore the email.
- C: Verify with IT through official channels.
- D: Forward it to security as phishing.

SAFE ACTION(S): C OR D

(Scoring: A: 0, B: 2, C: 4, D: 4)

WHY:

Always use official company channels to change passwords so you don't get tricked by fake links.

PRO TIP:

Phishing emails often fake internal departments to steal credentials.

THE COMPLIANCE SURVEY

An email from a generic address claiming to be from Compliance asks all staff to complete a security awareness survey via a link to an external site.

- A: Ask IT if it's real..
- B: Ignore it.
- C: Confirm with Compliance or Security directly.
- D: Complete the survey.

SAFE ACTION(S): A OR C

(Scoring: A: 4, B: 3, C: 4, D: 0)

WHY:

Surveys are often just "phishing" traps used to trick you into giving away sensitive personal data.

PRO TIP:

Always verify the authenticity of mandatory internal requests via a known channel.

THE USB STICK FOUND

You find a company-branded
USB drive in the parking lot.

- A: Plug it in to check the files.
- B: Leave it where you found it.
- C: Throw it away.
- D: Give it to IT or your manager.

SAFE ACTION(S): D

(Scoring: A: -2, B: 0, C: 1, D: 2)

WHY:

Unknown USBs can automatically run viruses the moment you plug them in.

PRO TIP:

Treat all unverified devices as potential threats.

THE FREE CONFERENCE WI-FI

At a conference, you connect to an unencrypted public network called “Free Coffee_WiFi” to check company emails.

- A: Check only non-sensitive emails.
- B: Keep working like normal.
- C: Disconnect and use a hotspot.
- D: Use a VPN connection.

SAFE ACTION(S): C OR D

(Scoring: A: 2, B: 0-1, C: 4, D: 4)

WHY:

Hackers can intercept public Wi-Fi to steal your personal data.

PRO TIP:

Use a VPN or a secure hotspot when traveling.

THE COWORKER'S LAPTOP

You see a coworker's laptop unlocked in a public space like the break room during lunch.

- A: Leave it alone.
- B: Lock the screen and tell them later.
- C: Take a photo as a joke reminder.
- D: Log them out of accounts.

SAFE ACTION(S): B

(Scoring: A: 0, B: 4, C: 0, D: 3)

WHY:

An unlocked laptop is an open door for anyone to steal your private data or company info.

PRO TIP:

The fastest way to mitigate the risk is to lock the screen.

THE TAILGATER

A stranger follows closely behind you into the secure office entrance without scanning a badge.

- A: Ignore and walk inside.
- B: Hold the door open politely.
- C: Ask to see their badge.
- D: Report them to security.

SAFE ACTION(S): C OR D

(Scoring: A: 0, B: 0, C: 4, D: 4)

WHY:

Tailgating lets unauthorized people bypass physical locks and security to access protected digital systems.

PRO TIP:

Never allow unverified individuals into a secure area.

THE CONFERENCE USB GIVEAWAY

At a conference, a supplier offers you a free branded USB drive as a gift.

- A: Keep it for personal use later.
- B: Politely decline the gift.
- C: Use it right away to transfer files.
- D: Give it to IT for checking.

SAFE ACTION(S): B OR D

(Scoring: A: 0, B: 4, C: -2, D: 4)

WHY:

USBs from unknown sources can be loaded with malware (Bad USB).

PRO TIP:

Never plug in external hardware from an unverified vendor.

THE LINKEDIN JOB OFFER

A recruiter on LinkedIn offers you a high-paying role and requests your work email address to send the detailed job description.

- A: End the conversation.
- B: Report the account to LinkedIn.
- C: Give your work email address.
- D: Share your personal email instead.

SAFE ACTION(S): A OR B

(Scoring: A: 4, B: 4, C: 0, D: 0)

WHY:

Scammers use social media job offers to target work emails and break into corporate networks.

PRO TIP:

Never introduce unverified external communication directly into your corporate system.

CONFERENCE BADGE SWAP OFFER

Someone at a conference you are attending offers to swap badges “to get you into a popular, overbooked session” that their badge has access to.

- A: Decline politely and walk away.
- B: Politely decline the swap.
- C: Swap badges to attend the session.
- D: Report it to event staff.

SAFE ACTION(S): B

(Scoring: A: 3, B: 4, C: 0, D: 3)

WHY:

Badge swapping lets competitors sneak into restricted areas to steal company secrets.

Konfydence™ – Outsmart Scams, Together!

THE CFO REQUEST

The CFO, using a personal Gmail, requests Q3 earnings data, claiming the company VPN is down, and sends a shared Google Drive link.

- A: Click the link and upload the file.
- B: Email the document directly.
- C: Call the CFO to confirm first.
- D: Report it to IT security.

SAFE ACTION(S): C OR D

(Scoring: A: -2, B: -2, C: 4, D: 4)

WHY:

Claiming a high-level executive is locked out creates a false sense of urgency designed to bypass rules; you must verify their identity and alert IT immediately.

PRO TIP:

Confidential data never leaves the official secure network.

DEPARTING EMPLOYEE

You notice a coworker who is leaving the company copying client files onto an external hard drive.

- A: Say nothing and ignore it.
- B: Tell them to stop copying files.
- C: Report it to your manager & IT.
- D: Wait and see what happens.

SAFE ACTION(S): C

(Scoring: A: -2, B: -1, C: 4, D: -1)

WHY:

Reporting discreetly ensures high value data is protected from theft while allowing management or IT to handle the breach without tipping off the offender.

PRO TIP:

Never intervene physically.

THE AI VOICE CLONE

You receive a call from your “doctor” (voice sounds identical) saying: “Your test results are available and not looking good. You should pay €300 for priority treatment via this link. (link provided via email)”

- A: Ask for the office number to call back.
- B: Pay immediately for treatment.
- C: Hang up & call your doctor’s office.
- D: Forward it to the health authority.

SAFE ACTION(S): A OR C

(Scoring: A: 4, B: 0, C: 4, D: 3)

WHY:

AI can clone voices of doctors to exploit fear and trust. Real doctors don't demand payment over phone.

PRO TIP:

Keep a list of your medical contacts handy.

TAX REFUND

An official-looking video from your local tax office says: “You have a €500 tax refund pending. You should provide your bank account details now to claim it.”

- A: Provide your banking details.
- B: Check the official website first.
- C: Ignore it as tax offices send letters.
- D: Call the tax office with a known number.

SAFE ACTION(S): B OR D

(Scoring: A: 0, B: 3, C: 2, D: 4)

WHY:

Real refunds notifications from your tax office come through secure portals or via post. Not through unrequested videos.

PRO TIP:

Never share your details via video.

THE HACKED DEVICE

You receive a notification with your photo of your phone saying “Your phone is hacked, download this app to remove the virus.”

- A: Download the app immediately.
- B: Run your official antivirus scan.
- C: Ignore it & restart the phone.
- D: Contact device support first.

SAFE ACTION(S): B OR D

(Scoring: A: 0, B: 4, C: 1, D: 4)

WHY:

AI can use personal data to fake alerts. Real hacks don't come with instant "fix" downloads.

PRO TIP:

Always use your phone's security tools first.

THE SUBSCRIPTION TRAP

An ad with your browsing history displays: “Exclusive deal on your favorite item — subscribe now for free trial.”

- A: Subscribe to try the offer.
- B: Check reviews before deciding.
- C: Close the ad and continue shopping.
- D: Block the ad or sender.

SAFE ACTION(S): C OR D

(Scoring: A: 0, B: 2, C: 4, D: 3)

WHY:

AI tracks habits to set traps.
Real deals don't hide recurring charges.

PRO TIP:

Read terms before any
"free" trial.

THE PRODUCT SCAM

You receive a video review from an “influencer you trust” praising a headset. It includes a link and tags you to buy.

- A: Buy using the link provided.
- B: Look for other reviews online.
- C: Check the influencer’s real account.
- D: Report the video to the platform.

SAFE ACTION(S): B OR C

(Scoring: A: 0, B: 3, C: 4, D: 3)

WHY:

Deepfakes can fake endorsements. Real influencers have consistent channels.

PRO TIP:

Double-check with official product sites and the influencer's page.

THE SUPPLIER PAYMENT UPDATE

You've just received a call from a "supplier" who knows your recent order history, asking you to update payment method over the phone.

- A: Update the payment details over the phone.
- B: Ask for a confirmation email.
- C: Call the vendor's official number.
- D: Inform your team about the request.

SAFE ACTION(S): C OR D

(Scoring: A: 0, B: 1, C:4, D: 3)

WHY:

Vendor fraud is a major issue.
Real vendors use secure portals for official updates.

PRO TIP:

Verify all changes via established contacts.

THE SOCIAL MEDIA ACCOUNT SUSPENSION

You receive an alert with your social media profile photo saying: “Your social media account has been suspended due to unusual activities—appeal here with your login.”

- A: Click the link to appeal.
- B: Check your account directly first.
- C: Report the sender to the platform.
- D: Change your password immediately.

SAFE ACTION(S): B OR C

(Scoring: A: 0, B: 4, C: 3, D: 2)

WHY:

AI can personalize alerts to steal logins. Real suspensions come through official emails.

PRO TIP:

Access your accounts only from the app or website.

RENTAL OVERPAYMENT

You booked a holiday rental home. The “owner” emails you saying: “We overcharged you — send your bank details so we can refund the difference.”

What do you do?

- A: Send the details for the refund.
- B: Reply asking for confirmation.
- C: Contact the booking platform directly.
- D: Ignore it & watch your account.

SAFE ACTION(S): C

(Scoring: A: 0, B: 1, C: 4, D: 2)

WHY:

Scammers pose as owners after interrupting bookings. Real refunds come through the original platform.

PRO TIP:

Communicate refunds only via the official website.

THE VACATION HELPER

While on holidays and on your way to visit a tourist attraction, a "friendly local" tells you it's closed. He recommends a "better plan." He doesn't rush you & looks very polite & sincere.

- A: Follow their advice and change plans.
- B: Ask for more local tips.
- C: Politely decline and continue your plans.
- D: Call your hotel for advice.

SAFE ACTION(S): C OR D

(Scoring: A: 0, B: 0, C: 4, D: 3)

WHY:

Fake locals exploit tourists by selling tover-priced tours. Real guides are licensed and paid through reputable channels.

PRO TIP:

Stick to hotel/app-recommended services for sightseeing.

THE STUDENT JOB

You receive an email offering an easy high-pay part-time job processing payments. You are promised a luxury student life style from this job.

- A: Apply and share your details.
- B: Research the company first.
- C: Delete it & report it to the school.
- D: Ask the career center for advice.

SAFE ACTION(S): B OR C

(Scoring: A: 0, B: 3, C: 4, D: 2)

WHY:

These are money laundering traps targeting students. Real jobs require applications through trusted sources.

PRO TIP:

Use university career services for vetted job listings.

WHAT YOU'RE TRAINING

Every scam uses at least one trigger or more

H — Hurry: Rush you so you don't think.

A — Authority: Pretend to be someone official.

C — Comfort: Sound friendly to lower your guard.

K — Kill-Switch: Threaten urgent consequences.

Your Goal: Spot the HACK before you react.

POINT RESET

Reset Rules:

A) If a player gets negative point (-1/-2):

- They can erase it by doing a reset activity
- If play choose not to reset, player get additional -2 points

B) Every 5th Round:

Every 5 rounds → the lowest scorer catches up to the second lowest scorer by performing a reset action.

GAME PLAY

2–6 players | 20–45 minutes

1. The Reader draws a card and reads the scenario + options (A–D) aloud. Place the card face-up in the middle.

2. All players secretly write:

- Their answer (A/B/C/D)
- Which HACK trigger(s) they spotted

4. Discuss the HACK(s) spotted.

3. Reveal answers.

5. The Reader flips the card and reads:

- SAFE ACTION(S)
- Score result
- Why it works
- Pro tip

5. Record scores:

- SAFE choice → +4 pts
- Partially safe → +2 pts
- Wrong → 0 pts
- Dangerous miss → -1 / -2 pt

6. Pass the Reader role clockwise.

7. Discard the card.

RESET ACTIONS

If play refuses to not do,
he/she gets additional -2 points

1. The Executive Pause

Stand up.

Take one slow breath.

Say clearly: "Pause before pressure."

2. The Risk Reframe

Say out loud:

"One rushed click can cost more than one missed opportunity."

Group nods.

3. The Calm Leader

Fill in the blank. Give one sentence advice to the table:

"When something feels urgent, I will ____."

4. Hurry Hand Brake

Pull imaginary handbrake, say

"Slow down!" 3x

5. The Authority Challenge

Say: "Authority is not urgency."

RESET ACTIONS

If play refuses to not do,
he/she gets additional -2 points

6. The Secure Handshake

Turn to the player on your right.

Firm handshake.

Say: "Nice try, 'helper!'"

7. The Cyber Oath

Place hand over heart.

Say: "I choose clarity over speed."

8. The Pattern Spotter

Name one HACK trigger from the last card
(Hurry / Authority / Comfort / Kill Switch).

Clear identification = reset.

9. The Compliance Flip

Say: "Policy exists because pressure exists."

10. Kill Switch Slam

Mime slamming "X" on keyboard and say:
"Threat deleted!"
